

1 The original brief description of the drawings did not match the actual 2 figures because Figs. 3a, 3b, and 3c were added during preparation of the 3 application (before initial filing with the Patent Office) and the “Brief Description
4 of the Drawings” section was not updated to reflect the insertion. The corrected
5 “Brief Description of the Drawings” above inserts descriptions for Figs. 3a, 3b, 6 and 3c and renumbers the descriptions for the subsequent figures by incrementing each number by 1, to reflect the insertion.

7 The added descriptions for Figs. 3a, 3b, and 3c are reproduced from actual 8 descriptions already in the specification at pages 8 and 9, so no new matter has 9 been added to the application.

10 With substitution of the above “Brief Description of the Drawings” 11 section, the documents should now be in condition for patent issuance and patent 12 publication.
